

Be Yourself

There used to be unicorns on all of my tshirts. Nothing to be embarrassed about. But that was in kindergarten. You have to be cool, have to look cool to be cool and have to be perfect. But it's not fair. Now I'm in fourth grade and have to come into "real life". What if I want to wear a unicorn tshirt, no makeup, just...myself. You should be yourself and not have to worry about what other people think.